

AUTOGRAMM

Autogramm is a synth-driven power-pop trio from Vancouver. Their uptempo, vintage new wave sound grew out of bassist's C.C.Voltage, guitarist's Jiffy Marx and drummer The Silo's shared love of proto-punk and power pop. Guitarist Marx also plays the keyboard, while bass and drums set the rhythm of the song.

If you're a fan of The Cars, The Go Go's, Gary Numan or Devo, you might like what they're doing.

The three had been connected through the Vancouver music scene, sharing stages, friends and even band members in seminal bands like Black Mountain, Destroyer, Lightning Dust, Blood Meridian, The Spitfires, Black Halos and Hard Drugs.

Within a year of forming, they released their first single, made a trip to California which garnered them interest from two different labels and did a west coast tour with Seattle's Bread & Butter.

Currently the band is celebrating the release of their first full-length "What R U Waiting 4?" on Nevado Music, with several more road trips including a recent tour with Atlanta's Gringo Star and a handful of upcoming dates with Vancouver's Needles//Pins. Autogramm plan to start recording again soon and to tour the US, Mexico and Europe in 2019.

REVIEWS

"Taking the minimalist hooks from the Cars and the slightly sinister buzz of Tubeway Army, Autogramm crank out a catchy number that not only would fit right at home on an I love the '80s soundtrack, but would also put about half of the songs on that tape to shame."

- John Gentile, Punknews, NYC

"From perfectly-crafted radio friendly power-punk songs to indie and new-wave, with many other stops in between, the new album is sure to make instant fans out of anyone that listens."

- Northwest Music Scene

"The chorus is on repeat in my brain and I don't have a problem with that." - Razorcake, Los Angeles

"If you miss the days when bands like Split Enz and Ultravox roamed the earth in top form, then Autogramm have come to answer your desperate pleas."

- Audio Ammunition, Los Angeles
